a conference between Czechoslovak and Austrian railroad officials, concerning, among other things, the assignment of several Czechoslovak railroad employees to the Marchegg (49/870) railroad station, was to be held in Vienna between 29 August and 3 September 1955. The Czechoslovak delegates to the conference requested informal talks with the Austrian railroad officials prior to the conference, but their request was turned down. They were expected to arrive in Vienna on 28 August. Accommodation was reserved for them from that date till 4 September 1955. 25X1

Comment: The expected arrival of Czech railroad officials at Marchegg was previously reported 25X1
